“Having already developed enough weapons to annihilate the Earth and all living beings, why extend the deadly arms race into space? Let us keep space safe for the future of humankind.

“We in India pledge under the watchful eyes of Mahatma Gandhi, the apostle of peace and non-violence, to keep space for peace. Please join us by organizing a local activity in your community during this important week of international actions.”

J. Narayana Rao, Nagpur, India